

My family are daily avid listeners to K-LOVE, and we support the station financially. I would be strongly against any efforts by Low Power FM broadcasting to displace the KLove signal. There are next to no other replacements for KLove in our area - a strong Christian message through quality contemporary Christian music and news.